Where to Find AFSCME's Archives

The screenshot shows the website for the Walter P. Reuther Library at Wayne State University. The page is titled "American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME)". It features a navigation menu with options like "Image Gallery", "Audio Clips", "Collections", "Selected Speeches", "Publications", "Exhibits", and "Blog". A sidebar on the left contains a "Main Menu" with links to "About Us", "Contact Us", "Donating Materials", "Help support the Library", "Hosted Web Sites", "News and Events", "Oral History", "Reading Room Survey", "Scholarships", and "Log in". Below the sidebar is a "Research Information" section with links to "Audio Visual", "Library", "Reading Room", and "University". A "Browse by all: categories" section is also present. The main content area includes the AFSCME logo and a paragraph describing the union's history and the library's role as its official repository since 1974. At the bottom, there is a table listing various AFSCME records and their corresponding abstracts.
